

Anixter Center Privacy Policy

Anixter Center has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for this website.

Our site's registration form requires users to give us contact information (like their name and email address). We use donor contact information from the registration form to send the user our electronic newsletter and other information about Anixter Center. The donor's contact information is also used to contact the visitor when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future mailings; see the choice/opt-out section below.

We will not give, or sell your email address. The only exception to this is if another nonprofit organization assumes responsibility and takes control over our donor list. In that case you will be given two weeks notice before the transfer to opt out.

This site contains links to other sites. Anixter Center and our site, Anixter.org, are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such websites.

Our site uses donation forms from donors to support our program. We collect the donor's contact information (like their email address). Contact information from the order form is used to send acknowledgements, donation receipt letters, and information about Anixter Center to our donors. The donor's contact information is also used to get in touch with them when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future mailings; see the choice/opt-out section below. Credit card information that is collected is used to charge the user donations. It is never divulged to any outside party.

Security

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. Our shopping cart is run on a secure server. If you directly email us, we suggest that you send two emails and break your credit card number in two. Send half the number in one email and the other half plus the expiration date in the other email.
